Documentary

Brian Bolster's award-winning short documentary "Winter's Watch" is now online. It features my work as caretaker and photographer on the Isles of Shoals in winter. Click here to watch at Vimeo

And if anyone would like to follow my occasional winter posts from the island, you can visit my Facebook page.

de Steiguer in LensWork and LensWork Extended #108 Small Island, Big Picture

"With these images I honor the wildlife, the grasses and seaweed, the wind-torn bushes, low trees, the rocks and the sea. For these are the real, long-term denizens of this place. We come and go like brief storms, but they remain. Creating photographs is a way to briefly engage with all that is here; to feel a small part of this interdependent and self-sustaining natural community – the sea and rocky islands on which I live."
