Exhibition & Awards

I'm very excited about having six images selected by juror Richard McCabe, Curator of Photography at the Ogden, for "Currents 2017," NOPA Members Showcase exhibiting at the Ogden Museum in New Orleans starting December 7th, with an opening reception December 8th 5-7pm (in conjunction with PhotoNola).

In the Altered Reality category of Showcase 2018 NANPA, I have been awarded Best Of Show for Grey Crowned Cranes and Judges' Choice Award for Two Snowys. There are a total of nine of my images that will appear in Expressions 2018 magazine in January 2018.

Two Snowys

Medow in LensWork and LensWork Extended #131 Envisioning Habitat

"In this series I gather visual assets, then blend multiple photographs to create real and idealized habitats for the birds. Of interest is that this work did not begin this way: there was a path of discovery that required creative problem-solving. Once I let go of reality I was free to create."
