PasadenaPhotographyArts FORUM "Douglas Stockdale - Photography Books as Art"

Photobooks have become ubiquitous in this digital age with a steady stream of new book titles and many options to self-publish. Nevertheless, a well-designed and thoughtfully conceived photographic book can become an art object and make a tremendous impact on a photographic career. It takes time, creativity, energy, fortitude, patience and guts. A photobook can be a gallery exhibition without walls, extending beyond your local community, engaging your audience for years to come, become an insightful look at your special story or a unique, stand-alone artist object. Douglas Stockdale will discuss how a photography book can become an artistic object.

Thursday, August 8, 2019
7:00 PM — 9:00 PM PDT
Armory Center For the Arts
145 North Raymond Avenue
Pasadena, CA 91103

This is a free event. Click this link to RSVP on Eventbrite.

Stockdale in LensWork and LensWork Extended #74 In Passing

Every memorial marker along the road is a story to be told. It is easy to drive by with just a glance. This photographer stops and makes us, through his photographs, take a closer look and ponder the lives lost, and the lives saddened, that are represented by these memorials.
