

LENSWORK

Alumni News

Helen M. Stummer — Metuchen, New Jersey

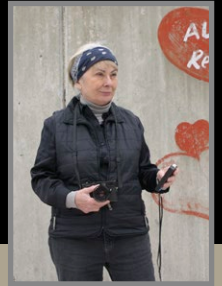

Photo By: Robert F. Lach, 2010

hmstummer.com

Exhibitions

Imitating Daddy

Playing and Surviving

March 2 – May 30, 2018

Helen M. Stummer, a longtime Metuchen, NJ resident, social documentary photographer and visual sociologist is the featured artist in the Metuchen Library Gallery. The opening reception is on Sunday March 11 from 1-4. Light refreshments will be served.

Twenty-one of her silver gelatin photographs, five of her paintings, and a PowerPoint presentation will be on view in the upstairs community room of the library.

On Wednesday April 11 at 1pm "The Friends of the Metuchen Library" will host a book talk when Helen will share her work and hold a book signing.

International Center for Photography

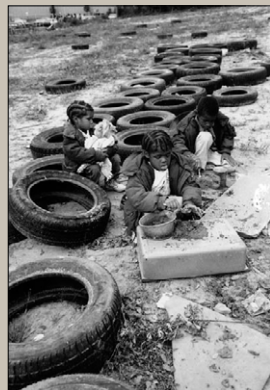

February – June 2018

Sixty-eight of Helen's black-and-white silver gelatin prints will be on exhibit at the International Center for Photography gallery at The Mana Center for Fine Arts in Jersey City, NJ. Alfricia Heiderhoff is the curator.

Her recently published book by Temple University Press, Risking Life and Lens: A Photographic Memoir will be on sale at the ICP gallery bookstore in their Bowery gallery.

Child Walking Away in the Fog, Newark

Stummer in LensWork and LensWork Extended #60 Anecdotes: Courage and the Camera

For over 30 years Stummer has worked in the toughest neighborhoods in New York City and Newark. Her story is one of courage and caring that can encourage us all.

Back issues of LensWork Extended perpetually available here.

