Speaking Event

Heritage Beyond the Forest

"I am honored to have been invited to speak to the members and guests of the DFW World Affairs Council in Dallas on Tuesday, September 29, 2015 HKS Inc. in downtown Dallas.

Reception: 6:30pm
Program and Book Signing: 7pm
The program is open to the public.

"My family's connection to the history of the Jews of Eastern Europe inspired my long term project and my book, Beyond the Forest, which was published by the University of Texas Press last fall. I will be speaking about my personal as well as the universal implications of this journey and of my photographic vision for this multifaceted work. Click for information and tickets

"Interested in purchasing copies of Beyond the Forest as gifts, perhaps for a donation to a special library or for your own collection? Books will be available at the event or visit the UT Press Website or Amazon today.

Beyond the Forest
Jewish Presence In Eastern Europe, 2004-2012

A personal perspective on Jewish Presence and Absence in a range of urban and rural communities in Poland and Ukraine.

Introduction by Anda Rottenberg
Afterward by Joseph Skibell
Illustrated essay by Loli Kantor

Kantor in LensWork and LensWork Extended #87 There Was a Forest

Using the small, contact print format, these platinum and palladium prints from Loli Kantor have the feel of aged photographs, perhaps family photos. They evoke memories and hint of a time a generation or two ago. And how appropriate that they do so, calling our attention to the lost family members and the few remaining ones from the Jewish communities of Ukraine and Poland. In this personal project, Kantor explores her own Jewish cultural legacy in these small villages and remaining communities.
