My Colombia: The First Seven Years

When photographer and writer Michael Evans landed in Colombia in 2010, he never imagined he would never leave. My Colombia: The First Seven Years contains a collection of photographs Michael has taken while traveling throughout Colombia for work and holiday.

Evans in LensWork and LensWork Extended #65 If These Walls Could Talk

"This project gave me a surge of energy that I was not able to control. I was inspired by the mystery and fortitude of these buildings; their ability to withstand earthquake, fire, and a century of damp coastal elements. One can feel life's grace as well as harsh realities in their presence. If only these walls could talk!"
