Kickstarter Campaign

Kickstarter Campaign to fund the publishing of

THEY CALL ME GRANDMA TECHNO

by Patricia Lay-Dorsey

I invite you to offer your support by preordering the book "They Call Me Grandma Techno" on our Kickstarter Campaign page. Once there you will find that each level of support comes with special rewards. Our goal is to raise $16,500 between February 21 and March 25, 2019. We would love to have you join our team!

Lay-Dorsey in LensWork and LensWork Extended #121 Tea for Two

"I named this project Tea For Two after the song Eddie has played on the piano — and we have sung together — almost every day since we married in 1966. Yes, long marriages take commitment and perseverance, but this project has helped me see that it is creativity, humor, and love that give voice to the song."
